UPDATE: Ames Police Investigate Suspicious Death

On February 20, 2021, at 7:02 p.m., the Ames Police Department conducted a welfare check at an apartment at 407 South 5th Street. Officers entered the apartment and found a deceased female inside. After processing the apartment, investigators believe the deceased died as a result of homicide. The name of the deceased is being withheld pending notification of family.

Follow-up investigation by Ames Police and the Iowa Division of Criminal Investigation has identified a person of interest in the case as Richard G. Fleck (AKA- Rashaud Sims), age 33. Fleck is approximately 5'08" tall and weighs 165 pounds. He is a black male with brown eyes and black hair. Fleck has tattoos on his hands and on his neck. He is believed to be in the Kansas City, Missouri area but he also has ties to communities in Texas and Mississippi. If you see Fleck contact local law enforcement or dial 911.

Investigation into this incident continues by the Ames Police Department and Iowa Division of Criminal Investigation.
