PUBLIC FORUM: Mayor Haila opened and closed the Public Forum when no one came forward to speak.

AMES URBAN FRINGE PLAN UPDATE AND 28E EXTENSION: Director of Planning and Housing Kelly Diekmann explained the history of the Ames Urban Fringe Plan (AUFPP) and 28E Extension. Director Diekmann shared with the City Council that the January proposal, put together by staff at the request of the City Council, had not been accepted by Story County or by Gilbert. After detailing the proposals, as well as proposed changes from all parties, Director Diekmann requested direction from the City Council on how staff should proceed. He explained the City's January response partially agreed with the earlier Story County requests by removing all Urban Reserve Overlay designation in the southwest area located west of State Avenue but retained the Growth Area designation and related Natural Area Overlay for the former Champlin property. In response to requests for no Urban Reserve Overlay north of 190th Street by the County and for a buffer with no Overlay by Gilbert, the City reduced the overlay north of 190th Street to extend $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile north of 190th Street and from the railroad tracks east to Arrasmith Trail (east of Hwy 69). Director Diekmann noted that based on the response letters, neither Gilbert nor Story County has agreed with the City's January proposal. Both entities suggest a $\frac{1}{4}$ mile extension of Urban Reserve north of 190th Street with the remaining area as Ag and Farm Services. Story County also addressed the southwest, accepting the reduced Urban Reserve Overlay but requesting again that the former Champlin property be removed from the Growth Area and designated Ag and Farm Services.

Director Diekmann shared that Story County also requests clarification that the Meadow Glen Neighborhood, designated as Rural Residential Existing, would also have the Urban Reserve Overlay removed. Story County suggested two policies be added to the Fringe Plan, One is to have a policy for directional drilling/boring for utility extensions in the Natural Areas. Secondly, that City will not annex into Urban Reserve until Growth Areas and Infill options have been utilized by the City. The directional boring is a new proposal, shared Director Diekmann, although the policy for infill utilization has been brought up by Story County during previous discussions.

Story County also approved extending the current 28E until June 30, 2023 and requested Gilbert and Ames do the same. Subsequently, Gilbert has approved an extension until June 30th as well. Story County also describes at the end of their letter a request that the City Council initiate hearings to adopt a AUFPP Update even if the City does not concur with their suggested changes to the Draft Plan. If the City Council approves an updated AUFPP, they would then consider City's approved plan and a new 28E agreement. Director Diekmann shared what options were available for the City Council to move forward and shared that staff did not have any further stance beyond the January proposal.

Council Member Betcher questioned what the process would look like without a 28E Extension and AUFPP. Director Diekmann stated that it would be similar to the current relationship with Boone County, giving the City complete autonomy under State Code for annexation. He also noted that both Story County and the City would have subdivision authority, and both set of standards would have to be met to proceed with any projects. Zoning is the main area the City would not have control over, but he further explained that Story County's zoning decisions could not prevent City annexation. Council Member Rollins questioned the City's options for protecting environmentally sensitive areas, which Director Diekmann detailed. After answering questions from the City Council, Director Diekmann reiterated that City staff had no recommendations to accept or adopt these requests, as staff believe that the November proposal was the most advantageous. He explained that with the fresh policies and comprehensive plan recently developed by the Planning and Housing Department, it did not make sense to adopt a new fringe plan given Ames Plan 2040.

Mayor Haila opened Public Input.

Mayor Jonathan Popp of Gilbert spoke, asking the City Council to give some consideration to the proposals from Gilbert and Story County Board of Supervisors. He encouraged maintaining land as farm ground between Ames and Gilbert and advocated for protection of Ames water sources, and protection of Ada Hayden watershed. He also expressed concerns of the effects on school districts, the Gilbert-Franklin township fire station, and conservation in the area. Mayor Popp encouraged the City Council to do the "right thing." He clarified for Council Member Gartin that further expansion into this area could lead to additional building and staffing requirements in the Gilbert school district stemming from students that weren't originally planned for.

Christine Hausner, 3505 245th Street, Ames, expressed her efforts to try to prove how important the Worle Creek corridor is and her belief the City should be focused on the conservation of this area. She shared that she had started an online petition which had received over 8,000 signatures. Ms. Hausner asked the City Council to keep the area in Ag and Farm services and protect the area from urban development.

Rosalyn Brandt, 6314 510th Street, Ames, shared her concerns with dissolving the AUFPP and her desire to protect the farmland in the area around Ames. She asked the City Council to limit urban sprawl and spoke against dissolving the AUFPP.

Kim Christensen, 2085 South Dakota Avenue, Ames, stated he agreed with the previous individuals' viewpoints and that he was attending the meeting to represent the trustees of the Washington Township. He stated they were opposed to the proposed AUFPP as Washington has shrunk due to annexation, and shared requests with the City Council from the Township of Washington.

Liesel Danielson, 2981 South Dakota Avenue, Ames, spoke in opposition to the AUFPP asked to keep the southwest area of the AUFPP in Ag and Farm Services to protect the land, and shared how involved the neighborhood had been in speaking out against it.

Phil Iasevoli, 3108 South Dakota Avenue, Ames, spoke against the proposed AUFPP designation in the southwest area. He shared the area is surrounded by Iowa State University owned land and his hope that the City Council will consider the removal of the southwest area from development.

Alex Christensen, 2984 South Dakota Avenue, Ames, echoed his support for prior comments.

Mayor Haila closed Public Input when no one else came forward to speak.

Director Diekmann clarified per the request of Mayor Haila what authority would be held by Story County and the City of Ames if there were no AUFPP to address concerns brought by those during Public Input.

PERSONS LIVING IN THEIR VEHICLES ON CITY STREETS UPDATE: City Attorney Mark Lambert went over the memo provided to the City Council and detailed that the City has no jurisdiction from the perspectives of fire code, public health, or the animals living in the vehicle as there is no evidence the animals are not receiving adequate care. The Iowa Department of Transportation (IDOT) had responded that they had no authority over those living in their vehicles. City Attorney Lambert provided the City Council with potential restrictions on the size of vehicles on City streets, and potential ramifications for each option.

Mayor Haila opened and closed Public Input when no one came forward to speak.

After thorough discussion between Council Members, Mayor Haila indicated that he would like the City Council to take a position on the record for this issue as there had been several complaints and letters from concerned citizens. RESOLUTION ALLOCATING FY 2022/23 CITY ASSET RESERVED FUNDS FOR HOUSING SERVICES: Assistant City Manager Deb Schildroth explained the background of the request and noted one of the caveats was that requests had to be made for services the City already contracts with the agency to provide in Fiscal Year (FY) 2022/23. After reviewing how City staff arrived at the apportionment for each agency, Assistant City Manager Schildroth stated there were representatives from each agency available to answer questions from the City Council.

She shared that this would allow the City to make a statement of support for a low cost. Council Member Beatty-Hansen stated that she was never in favor of making parking easier, but viewed this as a very important event to support.

Mayor Haila closed Public Input when no one else came forward to speak.

AMES DOWNTOWN PLAZA PROJECT (STEVEN L. SCHAIKER PLAZA): Director of Fleet Services Corey Mellies provided a brief history of the project and the Change Orders that had been approved previously. He shared this change order was for upsizing the water line to the garage area for the ice resurfer, a frost prevention system for the ice ribbon, removing the drop curb for the existing driveway on Clark Avenue and replacing it with full curb and gutter, and sidewalk replacement due to utility work by the City. Director Mellies stated that the biggest portion of the cost is due to the frost prevention system.

Director Mellies explained that due to the site conditions being known during the design, the City should not be responsible for the costs associated with the frost prevention system. City staff will formally notify the design consultant that due to their inadequate design, the City must be reimbursed for this additional cost. However, he stated that the contractor cannot proceed with work on the ice ribbon until direction to proceed with the change order is provided. Approving the change order was necessary for City staff to be able to begin discussions the contractor regarding reimbursement. Director Mellies assured Mayor Haila of the confidence the subcontractor was offering for the quality of the ice and frost prevention system.

NORTH RIVER VALLEY WELL FIELD AND PIPELINE PROJECT: Director of Water Pollution and Control John Dunn, gave the project history and shared that City staff had taken a month to evaluate awarding the contract. During this process, it was determined that there were inaccurate estimates provided by the Engineer, and this was the reason for the discrepancy between Engineers Estimate and bid totals. Director Dunn detailed for the City Council many different aspects that had been considered before the recommendation to award the contract was brought before them. He shared that City staff had conversations with the low bidder, and the bidder was willing to discuss potential cost savings in the electrical area of the project. Rob Baker from HDR Engineers was present to answer questions from the City Council.

Director Dunn clarified for Mayor Haila that the increase in bid prices from the previous to present was an effect of four years of COVID-19. Mayor Haila encouraged Director Dunn to discuss with the low bidder to see if the bidder would be willing to negotiate on risk to lower costs for the City. It was noted that the electrical subcontractor had ideas for cost savings that would be explored.

Moved by Betcher, seconded by Corrieri, to adopt RESOLUTION NO. 23-210 approving final plans and specifications and awarding contract to Keller Excavating, Inc., Boone, Iowa, in the amount of $10,200,955.80 for the North River Valley Well Field and Pipeline Project, contingent upon the Iowa Finance Authority approving the City's construction loan.

HEARING ON MAXIMUM LEVY: Finance Director Corey Goodenow and Budget Manager Nancy Masteller shared that this was the first of two Public Hearings needed to approve the final FY 2023/24 budget. City Manager Steve Schainker explained the original recommendation brought before the City Council was only a 13-cent levy increase, but a mistake made by the State in calculating the rollback necessitated an increase of 37 cents in order to meet the General Fund's need of $1.2 million.

Director Goodenow shared a modification to the levy use, noting that City staff is proposing utilizing more of the General Fund Levy instead of the Employee Benefits levy. He stated that based on what was known at this time, this would allow for the greatest amount of flexibility in consideration of the legislation happening at the State level. Giving future City Councils the ability to utilize flexibility in determining tax rates was another goal of utilizing these levies.

City Manager Schainker reiterated that the total levy amount was $10.20 with the 37-cent increase. He stated that City staff were trying to understand what the State wants to see in terms of levy usage and retain the City's flexibility going forward. The bottom line stayed the same to the City's customers, funds were just shifted between the two levies. City Manager Schainker confirmed that at the next hearing on the maximum levies, staff would show what the 37 cents means to the taxpayers in industrial, commercial, and residential categories. He also clarified that the property assessment valuations that had just been issued would not impact the FY 2023/24 budget, and that the City Council would have the option of decreasing the rate for FY 2024/25 budget to offset those increases. Further, he reminded the City Council and those watching that the General Levy was used to fund the Police Department, Fire Department, Parks and Recreation, and the Library. Mayor Haila noted that in many cases, residential rates decreased while commercial increased due to the rollback.

Mayor Haila opened and closed the Public Hearing when no one came forward to speak.

improvements. He noted City staff would be back with loan agreements when those projects were slated to move forward, as this was a “not to exceed” loan.
