Due to the threats made by the suspect about shooting the victim, officers drew their duty firearms and gave verbal commands to the suspect. Upon arrival, officers could hear a female screaming for help. They knocked and announced but no one would come to the door. Officers forced entry into the apartment and had their duty weapons drawn. Details: Officers were dispatched to a local apartment complex for a male who was pounding on a door and throwing his body into a door in an attempt to gain entry. Officers had dealt with this male on multiple calls for service in the previous 48 hours for his erratic behavior. When the initial responding officer arrived, the officer located the male suspect outside only wearing a pair of boxers. Due to the officer's backup being minutes away and the male's erratic behavior, the officer drew his Taser and pointed it at the male and gave him verbal commands to put his hands on his head. The male refused to comply and postured up to fight the officer. The officer deployed his Taser, striking the male. The male fell to the ground and continued to be non-compliant. The officer had to continue utilizing the Taser to maintain control of the suspect and prevent him from getting up. Once backup arrived, officers were able to go hands on with the male and secure him in handcuffs.

Charges: Disorderly Conduct, Interference with Official Acts

Demographics: 30-year-old white male

*A note on arrests and charges. There is a difference between a discretionary and non-discretionary arrest. Non-discretionary arrests involve incidents when the officer has no choice but to make an arrest. Examples include, but not limited to; Driving While Barred, Driving While Revoked, Driving While Suspended, Warrant Arrests, Contempt of Court, Failure to Appear, Probation/Parole Violations, Domestic Assaults, and Theft calls when a private business wants to file charges on offenses such as shoplifting. Other cases are incidents where there is a victim, and we have victim focused investigations allowing them voice in the decision-making process. In all cases, an officer must establish probable cause to make an arrest.
