The purpose of the University Area Urban Revitalization Programs is to encourage and support the adaptive reuse of Greek houses, or the construction of a new Greek house on the site of a previous Greek house. The Programs also support the adaptive reuse of other buildings with potential for historic significance. In the Campustown area, the purpose is also to encourage revitalization of slum and blighted and underutilized properties and encourage and support the new development of mixed-use buildings with structure parking. It is hoped that the program activities will result in the improvement of the area, as well as the enhancement of the entire community.

Campustown URA Criteria Appendix

1. All Projects must comply with an option from both column A and column B. Additionally, projects with residential uses must also comply with all requirements of column C.
2. Projects requesting final tax abatement approval must be compliant with an approved Site Development Plan and have received a certificate of building occupancy from the City of Ames Inspection Division.
3. All features incorporated into a project to meet URA criteria must be maintained for the life of the tax abatement.
4. Applications for final tax abatement approval must include supporting documentation for each of the relevant criteria.
5. Architectural Design Guidelines:
The intent of this criterion is to promote building variation appearance within Campustown. The relative scale of new buildings can lead to similar building appearances due to construction techniques, uniform roof lines, and long building lengths; whereas, Campustown historically had diversity in building appearance and scale.

Visual interest of a building means incorporating architectural features that define buildings elements, such as the base, middle, and top of a building. Appropriate architectural features can include window details, brick and material color variations that highlight building elements and support building identity, parapets, or expressive storefront glazing systems.

Variation and Relief means building offsets that affect the apparent massing of the building at the ground level or for upper stories. For example, a uniform storefront at the base of building may have upper floor relief with a courtyard or changes in façade planes, alternatively, the lower levels of the building may have the appearance of multiple facades with a building offset that differentiates the façades and has a minimum depth of 6 inches. Recessed storefronts creating outdoor usable space at the ground floor can also provide variation and relief. The degree of needed facade relief will correspond to the scale of the building and length of the facade to achieve the desired effect of the URA criteria. Long facades are generally in excess of 60 feet; substantially longer façades may necessitate additional elements of relief.

6. Master Sign Program

Sign program details in the plan shall include the style of signs (blade, channel letters, etc.) location of signs, size and scale, lighting details, method of attachment to buildings.

Signage shall be orientated to the pedestrian level, internal illuminated cabinet signs with white or light color backgrounds are prohibited, channel letters should be affixed directly to the building without a visible raceway or have a backing panel that covers a creating the appearance of an overall sign face. Preferred signage would be decorative in appearance through its use of sign face materials, design, lighting, and style of signage.

In consideration of approval of the Sign Program, the Planning Director will review the Campustown Idea Book signage guidelines, scale of signage and location in relation to the building features, and lighting type. Once a sign program is approved, individual sign permits must be consistent with the sign program.
